Put Your Feet Up

Indulge the toes and soothe the heels with a scrumptious foot massage from The Thai Foot Spa. As one of the world's most ancient techniques to relax and rejuvenate the mind, body and soul, a simple traditional foot massage could be the very thing to get you through those last few stressful weeks before the wedding! The Thai Foot Spa also caters for Hen's parties, which makes farewelling your singledom a very unique and pampering affair! The Thai Foot Spa has two premises in Brisbane, Shop 3, 680 Sandgate Road Clayfield, Ph: 3256 1284 and Shop 9, 41 Park Road Milton, Ph: 3368 2655.

Nip Tuck

It's makeover madness at Brisbane's Regatta Hotel! Erected in 1874, the Regatta Hotel has been a favourite spot amongst "Brisbanites" for over 130 years. As part of the major facelift the Regatta now has an entire first floor dedicated to five private function rooms, many of which boast river and city views. Catering for 20 to 300 guests, the Regatta Hotel is the ideal choice for your wedding reception. All wedding packages are flexible, with a range of menu, beverage and decoration options available and all at affordable prices. For further details contact the functions team on 07 3871 9595 or visit the website www.regattahotel.com.au

Digital Dream

Stress-free wedding planning? Introducing Marziplanner! This cutting edge PC software helps couples plan their wedding day with just a few clicks of a mouse. Created by Ilka Newman, a Sydney-based event planning and bridal marketing expert, Marziplanner will help newly-engaged, time-poor working couples plan what is essentially the biggest event in their lives. The program is based around the guest list and once the user has entered their guests' names and contact details into Marziplanner, they can easily and quickly manage their events, track their RSVPs, make note of gifts received at each event, and even arrange the seating and floor plans for the wedding reception. Other features that make planning a breeze include an easy-to-use budgeting section, a suppliers contact book, a handy task list and calendar and much more.

For purchase or for more information, log on to www.marziplanner.com.au.
